This group will compile a results report signed by the members involved in the analysis. The results report will be given to the IJRU BOD for a final review and acceptance of the results. The new members of the Council will be announced within a week by the IJRU BOD. A formal letter of congratulations will be sent by the President of IJRU to the newly elected members and their NGB within a week of the announcement.

17. Promotion of candidatures

17.1. Candidates/NGB's will be permitted to promote their candidacy only at the date, time, and in the fashion as determined by the Election Committee. In the event that promotional material is allowed, it must be approved by the Election Committee prior to posting and must meet the guidelines for display accordingly as noted by the Election Committee. (See guidelines above)

18. Post Election Activities

18.1. The Ethics Panel and Election Committee will separately provide a post report to the IJRU BOD evaluating the overall success of the election process including areas where improvement is suggested, or further development needed. Each group will present their budget requests for the next scheduled election as part of the report. Reports are due to the IJRU BOD by August 1st.

18.2. Prior to the next Athletes' Council Meeting following the election, new members will be given any pertinent information and sign an IJRU NDA.

Election Procedure

19. Role of the Election Committee

19.1. The role of the Election Committee is to ensure compliance with the Election Procedure. The powers of the Election Committee include the following:

19.1.1. To take all measures which the Election Committee deems appropriate, at its sole discretion, to ensure full compliance with this Election Procedure, except the withdrawal or removal of any candidature, which may be decided only by the IJRU BOD.

19.2. Develop an objective ballot.

19.3. To determine, upon proposal by the IJRU, all voting stations, or other venues, where voting will take place, as well as to determine all areas in which the promotion of candidatures may be authorized ("authorized areas") or prohibited ("prohibited areas").

19.4. To supervise the entire election process and procedure, including the management of the analysis, counting and verification of the ballots/votes.

19.5. The committee will define an audit procedure to verify votes. Onsite votes will be verified using information from the IJRU registration system and online votes will be subjected to an audit of 20% of the online valid votes

19.6. The election summary includes:

19.6.1. total number of votes cast by gender breakdown

19.6.2. total number of valid and invalid votes (ask IT if this is even possible)

- 19.6.3. a summary of all candidates,
 - 19.6.4. summary of individuals named as the top vote getters. (total number of vote getters will depend upon the election year as members will fall into a staggered rotation on and off of the Athletes' Council)
 - 19.6.5. a breakdown of what countries the votes originated, and the number of votes cast per country
20. Infringement of the Election Procedure
- 20.1. Anyone may file or email a report of an alleged violation of this Election procedure from the opening of the election process. The report must be sent to the Ethics Panel Chairperson at (ETHICS@ijru.sport) no later than 24 (twenty-four) hours of discovery of the alleged violation or later than 8 (eight) hours after the closing of voting. The circumstances of the alleged violation must be clearly stated including the dated and signed by the person(s) filing the report. The complaint along with any supporting evidence shall be shared with the Election Committee and IJRU President simultaneously and immediately. The personal information included in the report will be processed in accordance with the laws protecting such personal information applicable to the IJRU and in accordance with IJRU Ethics Code and IJRU Code of Conduct. The report must be filed in English. The Election Committee will begin an immediate investigation regarding the filed report.
 - 20.2. If the Election Committee considers that there has been a violation of this Election Procedure, it may take whatever action it considers appropriate. If it considers the infringement to be of little importance, it may decide to refrain from any action or issue an oral or written warning. If it considers the infringement to be serious, a delegation of 3 (three) members of the IJRU BOD will be appointed by the IJRU President. The IJRU delegation will invite the candidate concerned to appear in person, with a representative of the proposing NGB if the candidate so wishes, in order to submit a brief oral explanation of the candidate's position. The withdrawal decision may not be taken before the candidate, a representative of the proposing NGB (if the candidate so wishes) and the author(s) of the infringement, if applicable, have been offered a reasonable opportunity to be heard by the IJRU delegation. The President shall decide whether the IJRU delegation will make the final decision, or whether the IJRU delegation will further direct the report of the alleged violation to the IJRU BOD and or the Ethics panel which will render the final decision. The withdrawal decision, which may be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sport, will be notified in writing, including, as the case may be, by email, to the candidate and to the proposing NGB.
 - 20.3. The withdrawal of a candidate shall be considered an administrative and not a disciplinary measure. If the IJRU delegation or the IJRU BOD considers that the infringement which caused a withdrawal might constitute a violation of the IJRU Code of Ethics, Code of Conduct or of any other decision or regulation issued by the IJRU, the IJRU may take disciplinary action.
