2. Continental Organization's Year in review

- In 2020, 2021 the biggest accomplishment was getting Morocco on board
- Plans are in place to host African Championships in 2022
 - No task team at the moment for this
 - Discussions around these Champs with the host Country South Africa
 - Risk foreseen of non-participation from other African countries Growth remains a big focus

SWOT Analysis

Strength <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to still get countries registered • Some motivated leaders 	Weakness <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teamness • Participation • Volunteering esp for growth of sport • Funding • Lack of Events • Countries own Funding and/or raising fund strategies
Opportunities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Growth • Events • Committed Continent 	Threats <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Motivated members losing interest <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Might even move else where • Loose members due to non-events

- Biggest Concerns is much as we have opportunities for growth, due to commitment of current members and BOD we might not get to where we need to be. The growth depends on each individual within the continental organization

3. NGB Information within the Continent

- 54 Countries in Africa
- 12 Countries affiliated with IJRU
- Member Country Status
