

Information we collect

Contact Information

You may provide us with:

- Your name
- Your contact details (postal address, email address, phone number, social media account names)
- Your organisation's name
- Your job title
- Your age and date of birth
- Your gender identity

We may use this information to:

- Register you in competitions
- Send you news and other information from IJRU
- Inform you about IJRU opportunities
- Provide services to you, like judge training, coaches training, etc.
- Carry out administrative tasks

Applicant information

You may provide us with:

- Your resume
- Your work and volunteer history
- Your professional qualifications
- Your publications
- Your awards
- Your references

We may use this information to:

- Appoint you to positions in IJRU
- Hold elections for positions in IJRU
- Elect you to positions in IJRU
- Give you special awards
- Hire you to work at IJRU

Competition participation and results

You may provide us with:

- Your name
- Your contact details (postal address, email address, phone number, social media account names)
- Your organisation's name
- Your age and date of birth
- Your gender identity and/or competition gender category
- Results from physical tests
- Sometimes, health information

We may use this information to:

- Allow you to register and take part in competitions
- Publish competition results
- Make sure IJRU's rules and other processes are being followed
- Help you in case of an emergency

Voluntary study or survey information

When taking part in an IJRU survey or study, you may provide us with:

- Your name
- Your email address
- Other information the study or survey requires. When sending out a study or survey, we will make clear what information is being collected and for what purposes.

We may use this information to:

- Provide you and other members with better events and services
- Analyse the quality of our events and services
- Further the sport of Jump Rope / Rope Skipping

Photos or Videos

You may:

- Provide us with photos or videos of you
- Get photographed or recorded by IJRU at events we organise

We may use this information to:

- Publish results or awards
- Advertise IJRU
- Identify you

Identifiers and network activity

We may collect identifiers such as:

- Your IP address
- Marketing identifiers
- And other similar unique identifiers

We may use this information to:

- Analyse how our websites are being used on an aggregated and anonymised level
- Provide you and others with a better experience
- Tailor the contents of the websites to IJRU membership